

A Season of Grace

Let's encourage all of our members to participate in the Special Grace

We All Need Grace

When you spread out your hands in prayer, I hide my eyes from you; even when you offer many prayers, I am not listening ... wash and make yourselves clean. Take your evil deeds out of my sight; stop doing wrong.

Learn to do right; seek justice. Defend the oppressed. Take up the cause of the fatherless; plead the case of the widow.

“Come now, let us settle the matter,” says the Lord. “Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red as crimson, they shall be like wool.

- Isaiah 1:15-18

We All Need Grace

They said, “Teacher, this woman was caught in adultery, in the very act. Now Moses, in the law, commanded us that such should be stoned. But what do You say?”
When they continued asking Him, He raised Himself up and said to them, “He who is without sin among you, let him cast the first stone.”

Then those who heard it, being convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning with the oldest even to the last. And Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. He said to her, “Woman, where are those accusers of yours? Has no one condemned you?”

She said, “No one, Lord.” And Jesus said to her, “Neither do I condemn you; go and sin no more.”

- John 8:1-11

The Three Basic Laws of Heaven

So do you understand the three points? Three things. Purity, equality of all people, and then respect for public money. You must make these things your habit. Only when you reach the stage in which, as soon as your mouth and eyes open and those words come out, can you keep yourself from taking wrong actions.

There is no doubt you will face these matters in life. There will probably be many such circumstances, but if you make an effort to abstain from violating the law, the law will turn you into a victorious person. Then I won't have to tell you anything. Amen! This is the conclusion.

The Plague of Selfish Thinking

Today, the fruit of the fall is seen clearly in the extremes of selfish thinking and behavior that rage around us with impunity. I am speaking of the reprehensible behavior of people routinely seeking their own benefit and convenience regardless of the position and situation of others. I refer to the shameless attitudes of people trying to save themselves without concern as to whether others live or die. These are examples of the type of behavior that brought about the fall.

This is certainly not the type of behavior planned by God at the time of creation. God did not desire to bring about such a world, and we did not want to be born into such a world.
